

Youth Theatre Practitioner Job Description.

| | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Role Title | Youth Theatre Practitioner |
| Dates to work | Friday Evenings (6pm-9pm // Term Time) Saturday Morning/Afternoons (11.30am – 12.30pm // Term Time) Exact dates are: TERM 1 Friday 22 nd April – Saturday 21 st May Half Term Break Friday 10 th June – Saturday 9 th July (With a possibility to be extended) |
| Role Description: | We are looking for a Youth Theatre Practitioner to join our participation team to co-run our infant, Junior, and Senior Youth Theatre Sessions based at The Drill, Lincoln. The ideal candidate will have experience in delivering creative participation projects with children and young people and will have an in-date DBS certificate. The main aspect of the role will be the planning and delivery of youth theatre sessions, working with our members to devise and rehearse original material, resulting public end of term sharing's. The candidate will work under the guidance of the Egg Box Theatre team. We're interested in hearing from those that have a desire to work with young people and want to be part of our youth theatre development plans. |
| Responsibilities | To deliver fun and imaginative weekly sessions for Egg Box's Infant, Junior, and Senior Youth Theatre groups. Creating a space that is accessible, safe and engaging - meeting the needs of those within the group Develop original content devised and inspired by the youth theatre members. Preparing members for public sharing's through skills development. To ensure that safeguarding policies are implemented, and all incidents are reported to the Egg Box team. |
| Person Requirements: | Previous experience of (or a passion for) working with young people, aged 5 – 18 years. Ability to work as part of a team Experience in devising and delivering workshops and/or a programme of workshops for young people. Positive and outgoing attitude Ability to use initiative Organised and punctual Hold a DBS certificate |
| Salary: | £500 flat fee (50% to be paid at half term and 50% on completion of the contract) |
| Hours per week | 4 hours per week for 10 weeks |
| Closing date | Sunday 17 th April 2022 5pm |
| Applications to | Please send an expression of interest (Max 1 side of A4) to Dawn Richmond-Gordon at dawn@eggboxtheatre.co.uk outlining your suitability to the role, any relevant experience and what you would bring to the team. |
| Interview Dates | 19 th & 20 th April (Successful candidate must be available to commence work on Friday 22 nd April. |